NELLIE GOODWIN'S CHOICE.

Sensational Elopement at Jacksonville Wednesday Night.

There was quite a sensation in Protestant and Jewish circles at Jacksonville yesterday when it was announced that Miss Nellie Goodwin, only daughter of Dr. W. R. Goodwin, pastor of the Jacksonville Presbyterian church, and in 1881 in charge of the First M. E. church, this city, had eloped with a young Hebrew, Meyer Weil, son of a Jacksonville clothier, and had married him quietly at nine o'clock Wednesday night. The Jacksonville Journal gives the following particulars of the marriage:

"The event was altogether without the knowledge of the parents of both contracting parties, since the groom's father, Mr. L. Weil, a prominent Hebrew of this city, and Rev. W. R. Goodwin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, were both opposed to the match for religious reasons. A Jacksonville reporter, having learned that Judge M. T. Layman had performed the ceremony, sought him at his home at a late hour last night. The judge was averse to an interview, and he said that after the marriage he had been requested not to publish it; being informed, however, that the reporter was already in possession of the main facts, he consented to give the remaining particulars, in order that the matter might not be misapprehended. Shortly before 9 o'clock a carriage called at his residence, on South Prairie street, and he was invited to go and perform a marriage ceremony. Entering the vehicle he was taken to a house on south end of Washington street, where he found the expected bride and groom and two witnesses. Under these circumstances the knot was securely tied, and Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Weil at once retired to a room at the rear of the house, where they remained until about midnight. The marriage license stated the groom's age as 21, and the bride's as 19, but those who are considered competent authorities say that the age of the young lady is much less.

The Goodwin family are well known in Decatur, where the young bride has many personal friends.

FORGIVEN.

The Jacksonville Journal of today had the following benediction on the marriage:

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Weil were at the Pacific Hotel yesterday and received a few friends. They appeared well and happy, and the favor of the old folks last night had been granted, though their opposition to the match was at first very marked. They expect to depart Monday for Chicago and Mr. Weil will there purchase goods for the store which he proposes to open at Las Vegas, N. M., where he has several relatives whom he recently visited. They will probably depart for their new western home in the course of a fortnight. May good fortune attend them.

Rain at Last.

The first refreshing rain that has visited this locality within nearly four weeks, fell this morning at 8 o'clock, and continued for nearly half an hour. It was sufficient to lay the dust and make mud in the streets. It came up from the northwest, but did not extend far east or south of Decatur. To say that the rain was welcome, would be putting it mildly. It was received with general shouts of pleasure, and smiles were plentiful. The drip was just splendid, but give us more of it. The city folk need it, and so do the farmers.

LAZARUS—More rain fell between 12 and 1 o'clock, and it was a soaker. Much of it seemed to go toward the southern part of the county, and also southwest and east.

BLUE MOUND item: "George Thaxton, of Mt. Auburn, passed through here on his way to Macon, to arrest Chas. Cazalett and a man by the name of Harris. He had a state's warrant, sworn out by Jack McVeigh. They are accused of forgery and raising notes. J. M. Brownback & Co. bought two of the notes, amounting to about nine hundred dollars. They, however, have made themselves safe."

A Panic in the Park.

During the free concert last evening there was a panic in and about the city park that continued for about five minutes, sending people and rigs flying in every direction for safety. It was caused by Will Ammann's horse, attached to a top buggy, taking fright in front of the Universalist church, and running away at a rapid rate of speed, directly toward the park, where hundreds of people were standing about waiting to hear the music. The cries announcing the runaway caused the people to scamper into stores and close up against buildings. The horse went tearing over the crossing at the corner corner and knocked down Fan Higgins, who was rescued by James Corey and taken to Cole's drug store. The animal went down North street, turning east at Main, then north on State toward the park, and wheeled westward, running against James Bentley's buggy, springing an axle of Bentley's rig. Going up Water street the Ammann horse turned at the Hawthorn corner and went east, where he turned into the park, knocking a selfe flying, and again sending the people scampering wildly for safety. The buggy came in contact with a tree and the horse tore himself loose, galloping through the park to Water, then south to the Hotel Brunswick, where he was caught. It is a miracle that no one was killed outright, but so far as known no one was seriously injured except Fan Higgins. She was run over by the buggy and the wheel struck her cheek and nose without leaving a scar. The nasal bone was fractured and blood flowed freely. Dr. Harsha attended her.

Fan gave her name to Marshall Mason as Annie May, but her identity was soon afterward fixed beyond doubt by parties who claimed to know her well. The Ammann buggy was not badly damaged. The horse was hitched near the church and took it right at a gallop to Water into the street in front of him. He broke his halter and ran.

FARMERS who have bought lots on the site of the old show grounds have commenced putting up fences and digging foundations for new dwellings. Manager Haines will have to secure a new place for Barium to exhibit on Tuesday, but the place cannot be definitely decided upon until Monday, when the agent will arrive.

The veteran Jesse Harper delivered a labor speech at the court house last night before an audience that was wholly in sympathy with the ideas he had to advance. The Labor Party is arranging to put county and senatorial tickets in the field, and will soon have a mass convention to complete the business.

Burglaries.

The mid-summer sneak thieves are still with us, and parties who carelessly leave their doors and windows unfastened are the losers. Last night the residence of M. B. Hall was entered and robbed of $5 or $6. About ten burnt matches were found on the floor this morning. Mr. Hall did not hear any one in the room and was not awakened. Mrs. Hall was partly aroused and saw frequent flashes of light in the room, but as she thought Mr. Hall was moving about she was not alarmed. W. J. McCalland lost a few cents Tuesday night by a thief entering the residence on West Eldorado street. Fasten the doors.

MARSHAL MASON is in receipt of a letter from J. L. Krupp, a traveling man from Adrian, Mich., who writes from Blue Mound, stating that on Thursday morning he was robbed of a $100 gold watch on the Wabash train, between Atty, Ind., and Danville, where Barium's show exhibited yesterday. There was a gang of thieves on the train following the show, and Mr. Krupp was one of the victims. The parents of Mrs. James Cahill, whose infant daughter was burned alive in the fire Tuesday, were on the same train. The old man was robbed of $15, all the money he had. They were on their way to visit their daughter and arrived yesterday. Mrs. Cahill is out of danger.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. J. D. Roth returned this morning from a week's sojourn in New York.

Elmer Block is still in the city. He likes the hot weather.

Bob Oglesby has gone to Lafayette with the Governor and staff.

Peter Ulrich has gone to Kansas on a brief tour.

Miss Jennie Fluhart, of Pana, is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. H. Mueller returned last evening from Chicago.

Miss Annie Rainey is entertaining Miss Clara Robique, daughter of the sheriff of St. Clair county.

Mrs. George Walker, of Pekin, is visiting W. F. Coladay and family.

Mr. Thomas M. Donnell has gone to Robinson, Crawford Co., on a visit. He will return in about three weeks.

S. D. Fisher, secretary of the State Agricultural Board, was at the New Deatur today.

Mrs. Herald, the Indianapolis fortune teller, who has been stopping at the Palace, left for the east to-day.

Mrs. Arthur Kinney and Miss Dora Bennett, of Springfield, have gone to Waukegan to remain during the heated term.

Manager Haines is in Milwaukee today, completing the circuit of games for the Deatur team to begin in August, the dates having already been given in these columns.

Mrs. David Brookway, who held No. 6, the elegant oil painting disposed of at the drawing last night at the New Deatur hotel by the artist, Miss Emma Millepaugh.

Lincoln Journal: Mr. Henry G. Bramwell, for twenty years connected with Frank Froer's hardware house, has tendered his resignation. Mr. Bramwell will go to Decatur, where he has $30,000 invested in the Deatur coal shaft. His many friends in Lincoln, and they are true and tried, will regret to hear that Mr. Bramwell is about to leave us. He has been an active, valuable citizen; he served several years in the council and was always on the side of public improvements. Wherever he may go, our people will wish him success and family health, happiness and prosperity.

DECATUR GIVEN A CLOSE RUB.

Fine Ball Playing—Score 6 to 3 in favor of the Home Club.

There was good playing at the park yesterday, barring bad breaks made by the home team in the first inning, which gave the Cairo club two ratty runs and put six Egyptians at bat, only one of whom got a safe hit. Then after the third inning Callender was put in to catch Mitchell and the Old Goldies played with more confidence and won the game in a clever manner. Mitchell coming out with high honors, having struck out 14 men, made 19 assists and taking part in two double plays. In the eighth inning, with the score 6 to 3, three of the Cairo lads were on base, with two men out. Had Moore made a two-bagger the game would have been a tie, but long-headed Mitchell puzzled him with curves and he struck out, and the Deatur agony was over. The Cairo club played decent ball, and showed their mettle. Sprout went to first base after Flynn hit him for three bases, and O'Callahan stepped into the box. Decatur's bunched hit and good fielding won the game. It was a fine contest and well deserved a large crowd. There were less than 300 present. Below is
